I Fancied it Then, and I Fancied it now.

10/10. Y I K E S. Wouldn't touch this game ever again for the price you pay. $5 game at most selling for $15+. Just horrible all around even for a new game!. This is one of the worst games I've ever played. I was expecting a funny game, and this isn't funny at all.

I can't recommend this game to any single person.. It's a cute little game with nice clever puzzles. Very atmospheric and intuitive, great visuals, and you cannot die, but the drawback is - it's very short. Just leaves you wanting more.

I give it two out of four hearts.. Ever wanted to tie guns to remote control cars and fight with them? This basically gives you that feeling. It's repetitive and eventually gets boring. But for that feeling of zoomin' around and shooting stuff this is it. Lacks any rpg elements but with a controller it is a fun feeling.. I rather enjoy this game. Has quite a learning curve but the basics of the game are still easy to grasp though. It is undoubtedly repetitive, but for the most part I don't find repetitive trading mechanics boring, especially when there's a bit of naval combat, some missions and such thrown in the mix. Campaign is decent, although the extended freeplay is where the most fun to be had is imo.. Rm2k3 is a sequel to highly acclaimed cult Rm2k, which introduces sideview battle system that particular feature made this engine my favorite rpg maker of all.. dis♥♥♥♥♥♥gud ny1 wanna play wit me?. Awesome, well made and enjoyable (the content is really entertaining ^,^)

If you have a chance to get it you should, easy to get sucked into after a few minutes & end up playing the night away... =.=.
You see the pictures? Those are over a year old. BEFORE the game breaking and game ruining update. This game is now just being false advertised and is ruined. Not worth $20. Not even worth $10. Do me a favor, report this, and then skip.. The controls are frustrating, not always responsive, and way too rough. Everything slides and it's a real pain. The concept is fun and all, but I can't enjoy the game because it plays like♥♥♥♥♥♥. NEEDS IMPROVEMENT

CONS

- I don't think this is worth $2 it
- sound doesn't fit what you are doing - e.g pull out grenade loading gun sound
- no one online (really!)

Pros

- not too laggy
- fun idea and cartoon graphics

PS

- I will check the game every-so-often and might change my rating
- so far not worth $2
